

St. Joseph's College of Commerce
(Autonomous)
No.163, Brigade Road, Bangalore - 560 025.

SJCC MANAGEMENT RESEARCH REVIEW

(A Bi-Annual Peer Reviewed Journal - ISSN 2249-4359)

Aim and Scope

SJCC Management Research Review Journal is dedicated to fostering excellence in commerce management, social science research and practice.

The aim of the Journal is to disseminate the qualitative multidisciplinary research in Commerce and management. SJCC MRR's ultimate purpose is to build a professional network of scholars and practitioners devoted to more effective research investigation and supervision. SJCC MRR welcomes unsolicited manuscripts from all sources. SJCC MRR publishes original research and scholarly articles submitted in English that are relevant to social science, Commerce, Business Management, Human Resource Management, Economics and other relevant areas.

SJCC MRR is an independent, peer-reviewed journal published by the Research Centre, St.

Joseph's College of Commerce (Autonomous) Bengaluru, India.

Peer Review Process

All original contributions are reviewed by the editor and sent to two or more external reviewers as part of a double-blind peer review process (authors and reviewers are anonymous). The editor reserves the right to make editorial changes in all matter published in the Journal and cannot enter into correspondence about papers not accepted for publication. The editor has the final authority for the acceptance or rejection of any article.

Publication Policy

SJCC Management Review Journal pursues to be the Journal where the search for knowledge co-exists with a sense of responsibility among the research community. The SJCC Journal's primary motto is to publish the articles from different contributors at free of cost to promote the research community empowering through open access journal for all.

Open-access Policy

SJCC Management Review Journal has open Journal Access to their publications. This means that our journals provides immediate open access for readers to all articles on the publisher's website and other open access website. The readers, therefore, are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, link to the full texts or use them for any other lawful purpose. The operations of the journals are self-funded by the institution.

Submission Policy

Submission of an article implies that the work described has not been published previously (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture or academic thesis), that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, publication is approved by all authors and tacitly or explicitly by the authorities responsible where the work was carried out.

Waiver Policy

We don't charge any publication fee from authors to publish their article. The authors will get one complimentary copy for their contribution towards the journal.

Publishing Ethics

The publication of an article in a bi-annual peer-reviewed journal which aims at a holistic and integral formation of researcher, fostering their respective network of knowledge. It is a direct reflection of the quality of the work of the authors and the institutions that support them. Peer-reviewed articles supports and embody the scientific method. It is therefore important to agree upon standards of expected ethical behavior for all parties involved in the act of publishing: the author, the journal editor, the peer reviewer, the publisher and the society.

Duties of Editors

The Editors will take publication decision of the articles to be published in the journal website with fair play, confidentiality, transparency based on the reviewer's comments, revision recommendations and suggestion.

Duties of Reviewers

The reviewers should follow the journal publication policy and also give their contribution towards Editorial Decision with Promptness, Confidentiality, Standards of Objectivity and Acknowledgement of Source.

Duties of Authors

The Authors should follow the prescribed journal format in the website before submitting the article for publication. The research contributed by the authors should be original and plagiarism check should be performed before submission. The paper should not have been published elsewhere and if the paper consists of primary data, the questionnaire will be reviewed by the ethnical committee. The author must acknowledge the source of the content and follow fundamental errors in published works.

Plagiarism Detection

The publisher and journals have a zero-tolerance plagiarism policy. We insist a rigorous viewpoint on the self-plagiarism.

The peer review process is at the heart of the success of scientific publishing. As part of our commitment to the protection and enhancement of the peer review process, SJCC has an obligation to assist the scientific community in all aspects of publishing ethics, especially in cases of (suspected) duplicate submission or plagiarism.